On the basis of what legal provisions are or may be processed your personal data?

The rules on the protection of personal data (hereinafter referred to as the GDPR) are set out, inter alia, in Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) (Text with EEA relevance), the Act of 10 May 2018 on the Protection of Personal Data and in country related special acts (lex specialis).

1. "Personal data" - means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ("data subject"); an identifiable natural person is a person who can be directly or indirectly identified, in particular on the basis of an identifier such as name and surname, identification number, location data, internet identifier or one or more specific physical, physiological, genetic, mental factors, economic, cultural or social identity of a natural person,
2. "Processing" - means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction,
3. "Controller" - means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law,
4. "Joint controller(s)" - Joint controller(s) occurs when at least two Controllers jointly determine the purposes and means of processing, they are Joint controllers (art. 26 GDPR),
5. "Supervisory authority" - means an independent public authority which is established by a Member State,
6. "Recipient" - means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or another body, to which the personal data are disclosed, whether a third party or not. However, public authorities which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients; the processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing,
7. "Processor" - means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes personal data on behalf of the controller,
8. "Third party" - means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorized to process personal data,

9. "Third country" - an entity outside the EEA (European Economic Area) to which personal data is disclosed,
10. "Consent" - of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her,
11. "Privacy Policy" - this document, presenting information on the principles of personal data processing in accordance with the substantive scope indicated in art. 13 GDPR - information clause regarding the processing of personal data,
12. "Cookies Policy" - information on the use of cookies on the website run by the Controller. The Cookie Policy is available on the Controller's website,
"GDPR" - Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46 / EC (General Data Protection Regulation): <https://uodo.gov.pl/pl/404>.
